Name:	Date:_
Teacher Sheet: Citiz	zen Science	√Fledglings
Citizen Science Project: eBird
What is "citizen science"? Citizen science is a partnership be including students, community members, and educators. As a part observations, and studies with scientists to help answer ecological que becomes a part of a national database made available not only to the	of this partnership citizens share p sestions about bird populations. S	bersonal data, hared data
Why did Cornell Lab of Ornithology begin this projection help scientist document bird abundances and distribution in a particular particular and distribution in a particular pa	ž	began eBird to
How will this project help birds? Monitoring bird population their distribution and abundance.	tions using eBird helps scientists le	earn more about
What data do you have to collect to participate? Bird location, start and end time, total number of hours, and total number	1	covered,
How will you collect this data? I will watch birds at my scr people I am with, total distance covered, location where count took p total numbers.		